DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 8, 13-14, and 16-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Worwag (5416948).

Worwag discloses a vacuum cleaner as recited in the claims 1-4, 8, 13-14, and 16-17. Worwag discloses a vacuum cleaner having a housing (60), agitator (13), a chamber (7), a restricting device (81&80 which is wedge shaped), air turbine /guide vane (19),

3. Claims 1-4, 8, 13-14, and 16-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Worwag (5293665).

Worwag discloses a vacuum cleaner as recited in the claims 1-4, 8, 13-14, and 16-17. Worwag discloses a vacuum cleaner having a housing (2), agitator (4), a chamber (3), a restricting device (31&33), air turbine /guide vane (10),

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 9-12 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Worwag (5416948) and/or Worwag (5293665).

a. Worwag discloses the claimed invention except for a flexible material such as foam. The claim is obvious because to know to select a well known material such as foam would be a design incentive or a need generated by market forces such as to make a lighter vacuum, and this would be a reason to make an adaptation resulted from application of the prior knowledge in a predictable manner.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 5-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 1/24/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
8. Applicant states that the rejections are invalid.

b. The applicant argues what the prior art shows is not a restriction device; however, the claims does not define the term as having any specific structure. Therefore, the intended use or the specifications definition do not have any patentable weight. This term is broad any structure that partially blocks a path can be considered to read on the claim. 102 rejections are based on the structure of the apparatus even if that apparatus has different functions. Therefore the rejections are valid. The 103 still stands as well.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
